FALL 2016 - SYLLABUS

Florida A&M University College of Law seeks to assure equal access and full participation by persons with disabilities. If you require special services because of a disability, you may notify Associate Dean of Administrations, Reginald Green. This voluntary self-identification allows the University to prepare any necessary and appropriate support services to facilitate your learning. Any requests for exam accommodations should be directed to the Dean and must be made at least four weeks prior to the exam to allow adequate time to document and process the request.

Casebook: Jordan and Warren. All the assigned materials should be read for class. To the extent principal cases (excerpts of appellate opinions) are included in the assignment they should be briefed to assist in your recitation. Solutions to problems assigned need not be handed in unless specifically so indicated, but you should sketch the solutions on paper for your own benefit. Page numbers refer to the book; readings identified by name followed by "Supp." refer to materials that are available in the Law Library. Everybody should read White & Summers, Uniform Commercial Code Chapters 21-25 (5th ed. West Pub. 2000). It's a good supplementary reading.
