

Subject	Constitutional Law I - 302
Professor	Broussard, Patricia
Learning Management System	TWEN
Text and Material Information	Book Title Constitutional Law            Author Erwin Chemerinsky            Edition 6th            Publisher Aspen            Year 2020            ISBN 978-1-5438-1307-4 Required            or recommended Required Book Title Constitutional Law: Principles and Policies            Author Erwin Chemerinsky            Edition 6th            Publisher Aspen            Year 2019            ISBN 978-1-4548-9574-9            Required or recommended Required
Assignment Details	READ THE CORRESPONDING SECTIONS FROM THE TREATISE PRINCIPLES AND POLICIES BEFORE YOU READ THE CASES; EXAM QUESTIONS WILL ALSO BE CULLED FROM IT. WEEK ONE            Read The Entire Constitution with Particular Attention to Article III.            Read Treatise - Constitutional Law: Principles and Policies for this chapter: pp 33- 246            Chapter One: The Federal Judicial Powers pp. 1 – 44 Text Introduction            A - The Authority for Judicial Review            * Marbury v. Madison            Limits on the Federal Judicial Power            B - Interpretive Limits            * District of Columbia v. Heller            Congressional Limits            * Ex Parte McCordle            * United States v. Klein            C - Justiciability Limits            Prohibition on Advisory Opinions            * Plaut v. Spendthrift Farm, Inc.