Understanding Self-Service Student Center

The Student Center is a self-service page that provides students a single entry point from which to begin navigation to student related transactions. It also presents to students, in one location, the information that is important to them, such as their class schedule, enrollment dates, and account information.

From the Student Center, students can access any student related transaction that is available from Self Service.

The sections that are displayed on the Student Center are:

- Academics

Provides links to enrollment and academic records self-service transactions. Also displays the student's schedule, which displays the classes, in any career, in which the student is registered for the current term, as of today's date.

- Finances

Displays account summary information.

- Personal Information

Displays contact information.

- Admissions

Provides a display of your admission application progression information, LSAT score and external education listing.

- Holds

Provides a list of hold items. Students can click the details link to access the holds on the self-service page for more information.

- To Do List

Provides a list of to do items such as Financial Aid documents.

- Law Faculty Advisor

Displays the student's College of Law faculty advisor name and contact number.
