

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT RETROACTIVE WITHDRAWALS

The attached form is to be used to notify the College that you wish to submit a petition for a Retroactive Term Withdrawal for a semester/term that does not exceed a 12-month period. Signed forms should be sent to the Student Services & Administration Office to initiate this process.

Retroactive Withdrawal: A retroactive withdrawal is withdrawal from all classes from a previous semester or present semester in which the withdrawal deadline has passed. Students have up to one year to complete the request for a retroactive withdrawal. Withdrawals from all courses does result in tuition charges as noted in the Florida A& M University College of Law Student Handbook.

Retroactive Withdrawal Student Process: Students can retrieve the Retroactive Withdrawal form online at the college of law website. Fill out all information, obtain the required signatures, provide your written justification and submit all applicable documents with the signed retroactive withdrawal form to the Student Services and Administration Office at the College of Law.

Retroactive Withdrawal College of Law Process: Upon receipt of completed packet the information is sent forward to the College of Law Retroactive Withdrawal Committee. Retroactive Withdrawal requests are reviewed by the college of law committee members who vote to approve or deny the request. The committee's decision is based on (1) written justification, (2) supporting documentation, (3) your academic record, and (4) the number of previous appeals granted. It is critical that your written justification demonstrates a highly unusual set of facts outside of your immediate control, and the request for retroactive withdrawal must be a direct result of those extraordinary circumstances. The committee will not approve requests that are justified due to (a) poor time management, (b) poor decision making, or (c) poor planning. Also, courses that have been adjudicated or are under review for academic honor policy violations are not eligible for retroactive actions.

Notification: Students will receive a letter via their FAMU email and regular mail at the address listed with the College of Law Registrar's Office regarding the Committee's decision. The decision of the committee is final as noted in the University Retroactive Withdrawal Guidelines.

Withdrawals does not extend the allotted period for obtaining the Juris Doctor Degree.

FLORIDA A&M UNIVERSITY Retroactive Withdrawals Guidelines

A retroactive withdrawal is withdrawal from all classes from a previous semester or present semester in which the withdrawal deadline has passed. Students have up to one year to complete the request for a retroactive withdrawal.

Approved retroactive withdrawal petitions must meet one of the following criteria: medical, legal, military service, death and university error reasons. There are no exceptions.

A. Medical:

- i. The student has a physical illness in which the student is unable to attend class for a minimum of two weeks as indicated by a physician.
- ii. In order for the petition to be approved, the university medical form must be completed by the treating physician consistent with the above. (Candidate for refund).
- iii. Student must serve as the sole caregiver for an immediate family member who requires around-the-clock care as indicated by a letter from a physician.
- iv. In order for the petition to be approved, the university medical form must be completed by the treating physician consistent with the above. An immediate family member is defined as a parent, sibling, spouse, offspring or grandparent. (Candidate for refund).
- v. Psychological or psychiatric distress as indicated by a letter from a psychologist or a psychiatrist stating that the student's emotional functioning prohibited the student from attending class for at least two weeks.
- vi. In order for the petition to be approved, the university medical form must be completed by the treating physician or psychologist consistent with the above. (Candidate for refund).

Note: Please do not send your medical records to the Registrar's office
