REGISTRATION OVERVIEW
Spring 2021 Registration will begin on November 9, 2020. Priority registration by assigned appointment is November 9th through November 12th. Open registration begins on November 13th. Priority registration is based upon your program (full-time or part-time) and the number of credits you have EARNED to date (this does not include the current semester’s credits). Priority Appointments will be viewable in iRattler on Friday, November 6, 2020.

PRIORITY APPOINTMENT INFORMATION
Pursuant to the College of Law Student Handbook, each student will be designated an appointment day for registration based on their number of earned credits (this does not include current semester’s credits). The illustration below shows how to view your enrollment appointment in iRattler Student Center. The arrows indicate selection points. Once you click on details, the enrollment dates will populate and you must select the term of enrollment. In this example the Fall 2017 term is being used. There will be a selection choice for Spring 2021 when the appointments become available.
1. Effective Spring 2021, students may earn credit for working under a faculty member’s supervision as a student assistant in a new course entitled Teaching Fellow. The Teaching Fellow course is listed on the class schedule. Information regarding this course and how to register can be found by visiting the link below.

2. Spring 2021 courses are being offered in three instructional modes: on-site, remote, and hyflex. Each mode is illustrated below.
   - Remote will be reflected in iRattler as the room location and denotes this class as remote instruction only.
   - Hyflex will be reflected in iRattler as the room location and is combined with remote instruction. Students who elect the hyflex/remote mode will attend class remotely.
   - On-site will be reflected in iRattler as the room location and is combined with the hyflex instruction. These courses also have the section numbers that include “A” as part of the section number.

3. There are a limited number of seats available for on-site instruction. You can view the seating availability by clicking on the course number hyper link and the below screen will populate. The seating information is in the notes section of the page. NOTE: The last day to register for in-person seats is December 15, 2020.
FIRST-YEAR REGISTRATION INFORMATION

1. First-year students will self-register for their Spring 2021 courses.
2. First-year students registration will begin on November 13, 2020 because as new students the first semester credits are not yet earned to receive an appointment assignment.
3. First-year students are required to register for the same sections from Fall 2020 for their Spring 2021 Introduction to Analytical Skills (IAS) II and Legal Research and Writing (LRW) II courses. The system is set up to match each first-year student with the same IAS and LRW section as was assigned from the Fall 2020 semester and will generate an error message if you attempt to enroll for the incorrect section.
4. For the doctrinal courses, full-time first-year students may register for any day section of Contracts, Constitutional Law I, and Property. Part-time first-year students must register for the evening sections of all their required courses: Civil Procedure, Criminal Law, Introduction to Analytical Skills II, and Legal Research and Writing II.

STATE EMPLOYEE REGISTRATION INFORMATION

The following guidelines apply for students who will be utilizing the State Employee Tuition Waiver.

1. Students must be a full-time state of Florida (Non-SUS) employee to participate in the State Employee Tuition program.
2. State Tuition Waiver will be applied for no more than 6 credit hours. Waiver applies only to tuition.
3. The registration for courses that will be paid using the State Tuition Waiver begins January 4th through January 8th. If outside of this timeframe students will be responsible for the course(s) tuition and fees.
4. State Tuition Waiver form is located on the College of Law Registrar’s webpage.
5. Students are responsible for the terms and conditions of utilizing state tuition waiver.
6. Submit completed and approved state tuition waiver form to RegistrarCOL@famu.edu.

REGISTRATION PERMISSION NUMBERS

Some courses are set-up as department or instructor consent and will require a permission number for registration; the permission numbers are provided by the College of Law Registrar’s Office. The below listing of courses require a permission number to enroll for the course. Registration forms for these courses are located on the College of Law Registrar’s web page.

1. Clinic and Field Placement courses
2. Independent Research course
3. Research Associate courses
4. Teaching Fellow courses

SPRING 2021 COURSE SCHEDULE

The Spring 2021 course schedule is published on the College of Law Registrar’s webpage link below.

https://law.famu.edu/students/current-students/registrar/class-schedules/